Outdoor Stations of the Cross

At all three of our churches, we have put up Stations of the Cross on the walls of the church and site. As our churches will not be open until later in Lent, why not wrap up warm, go for your daily walk and spend some time praying outside? All three churches have slightly different designs and reflections.

Re-opening of churches: subsequent to the Government's announcement last Monday of the 'Road Map' to ease restrictions, further details are still coming out, but the Pastoral Team are meeting on Monday 1st and we hope to be able to announce the re-opening of our churches in line with the national timetable of easing of restrictions. Not all parish activities will be able to resume immediately, so please continue to monitor the parish website; www.ccen.co.uk

God is calling! Are you listening?

Are you looking for a challenge? Are you searching for God? Why not join the Vocations Team at their Zoom Café on Monday 1st March, 7.30 – 9 pm, where you will have an opportunity to ask questions and chat with Religious Sisters and Priests about Vocation. A warm welcome awaits you. Please email Diane at vocationsadmin@dioceseofnottingham.uk to register your place or for any further information. They look forward to seeing you (for 18 and over).

Do you need some therapy for the soul? This Lent, @BBCRadio4 will be exploring aspects of Ignatian spirituality and pointing listeners to their free online retreat "Knowing Jesus". DO YOU WANT TO FAST THIS LENT?
In the words of Pope Francis

- Fast from hurting words and say kind words.
- Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.
- Fast from anger and be filled with patience.
- Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.
- Fast from worries and have trust in God.
- Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
- Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
- Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy.
- Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.
- Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
- Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

Mary Bates RIP: Andrew Bates would like to thank all Mary's friends and parishioners for their kind words of condolence in the many cards, letters and offering of Mass received in her memory.

Pope Francis' Message for Lent is available to read on our website: <https://ccen.co.uk/pope-francis-message-for-lent-2021/>

Please pray for:

Coming up: Monday 8th March, International Women's Day. At 7pm there will be an online celebration run by Pax Christi. Our very own Sr Katrina will be leading this. Sr Katrina will be one of the Sisters of St Joseph of Peace living in the convent at Sacred Heart later in the year. To join the celebration, email admin@paxchristi.org.uk for the Zoom link.

Sacred Heart School: this week, Mrs Taylor, our headteacher, wrote to all parents and governors to inform us that she has decided to retire from the headship at the end of this academic year. Karen joined the school in 1999 and has served as teacher, Foundation Stage leader, Deputy Head and for the last five years has served as Headteacher. She has been a wonderful servant to the school and as Headteacher, has steered the school through a difficult time on a path of improvement that means we have a parish school to be proud of. Always going above and beyond the call of duty, much of her work has gone on unseen, supporting children and families and bringing the school to a judgment of 'Good' from both Ofsted and the Diocesan Inspections. She leaves to spend more time with her family and will still be part of the parish family. There will be a chance later in the year to thank her properly and show our appreciation for her hard work.

Mass intentions: our parishes have a wonderful tradition of having Masses said for various intentions. It is a wonderful gift to give to someone and to ask the whole parish community to pray for them. At the moment, we have over 100 Mass Intentions waiting to be said, so please be patient if your request doesn't appear immediately – all masses will be said. If we ever need to send any away for another priest to say, these will always be notified in the parish bulletin.
